

PEACE ENVOYS ARE ARRIVING IN CAPITAL

President Wilson and Secretary
Bryan to Receive Ghent
Delegates Tomorrow.

Delegates are arriving this evening for the opening tomorrow of the international conference which will plan the celebration of the centenary of the signing of the Treaty of Ghent and the one hundredth anniversary of peace among English-speaking nations.

Secretary of State Bryan will receive the delegates tomorrow morning, and President Wilson will greet them in the afternoon. Col. Robert M. Thompson will entertain them at luncheon, and James Brown Scott and the local committee will give a banquet for them in the evening. The party leaves Tuesday afternoon.

Among the distinguished guests who will be at the Shoreham Hotel during the conference are C. DeBryne Alderman and Alphonse Van Werveke, of the municipality of Ghent; Lord Wear-dale, Sir Arthur Lawley, the Earl of Stanhope, Sir Herbert Eustace Maxwell, Charles Thomas Mills, M. P.; Nell Primrose, M. P.; Arthur Shirley Benn, M. P.; James Allen Baker, M. P.; Moreton Frewen, M. P.; H. S. Parris, M. A., of England; Sir Edmund Walker, Raoul Dandurand, Charles A. Magrath, Travers Lewis, Capt. Charles Frederick Hamilton, of Canada; Sir George Houston Reid, high commissioner of Australia, and Eugene H. Outerbridge, of Newfoundland.

Plan Celebration in Capital.

It has not been fully determined just what the general plans for the peace celebration will cover. The international committee has decided that some sort of a general celebration shall be held to commemorate the hundredth anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Ghent, December 14, 1814, and of the ratification of the peace pact by the United States.

In the District the peace workers plan to carry out an elaborate celebration. A reception by the President, services in the churches in commemoration of the 100 years of peace, and special illuminations about the city are some of the things planned. The Postoffice Department will be asked to issue a special stamp, similar to that printed during the Federal-Pullman celebration.

The delegates, after leaving here, will make a trip through the West and North.

Hospital Has Bells On Poison Containers

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 11.—Bells rang in all the wards of the City Hospital today. There was such a merry concert as the nurses moved from place to place that the curiosity of the patients was aroused.

They found that the bells were chained around the necks of bottles containing poisonous drugs. Every time a nurse picked up a bottle of carbolic acid the noise of the bells attracted not only her attention, but that of all the patients in the ward.

Dr. Wayne Smith, superintendent of the hospital, issued an order to put bells on the poison bottles after Thomas Adams, an attendant at the city sanitarium, had been indicted for giving carbolic acid to a patient by mistake. The patient died.

McReynolds Joins Plea For Rehearing of Case

Attorney General McReynolds has joined a committee of the American Bar Association in petitioning the Supreme Court to grant a rehearing of its decision that a Federal appellate court may not correct verdicts of juries when they believe the evidence introduced was insufficient to support them. The Supreme Court held, by a vote of five to four, that a reversal by an appellate court violated the Seventh Amendment of the Constitution, and a retrial by jury was necessary to overturn the original verdict.

The Attorney General holds that while the Government is not directly interested in the case, the decision is of public importance, in that it strikes at all efforts at simplified court procedure and avoidance of court delays.

Boy Wins Verdict of $5,000 From Hypnotist

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 11.—Alleging that he was made a peripatetic invalid while acting as a hypnotist's subject, Oscar Larson, sixteen, today was granted $5,000 in a suit for $75,000 against Charles Larson, a hypnotist.

Larson hired out to North two years ago to travel about with him as a ticket taker. The boy charged that as soon as he was out of Minneapolis North compelled him to act as his subject. One of the acts which he was forced to do, Larson said, was to have his hips pinned together and walk through the audience for spectators to pull the pins out. If he winced during this ordeal, Larson alleges he was beaten.

TUESDAY TO DECIDE SENATE SUPREMACY

Test of Strength Will Come in Vote Over Action on the Tariff Measure.

The first test of strength in the Senate on the tariff bill will come Tuesday when the vote will be taken on the motion of Senator Simmons to refer the bill to the Finance Committee, and on the amendment of Senator Penrose to require the committee to have public hearings.

Republican leaders hope to force the Finance Committee to grant hearings Friday, when the question was raised, enough Democrats were ready to vote with the Republicans to order that hearings be granted.

Since then, Democratic leaders have been working hard on the Democrats who have been threatening to line up for hearings. They have won some of them over. But as fast as they win one back another breaks off the reservation. It was because the Democratic leaders saw they would be beaten in a test vote Friday that adjournment of the Senate until Tuesday was sought about for the purpose of giving the leaders time to line up their forces.

Would Be Victory.

If the Republican leaders succeed in forcing the Democrats to grant hearings they will regard it as an important victory. At the same time, they say that if the Democrats succeed in blocking the demands for hearings, the Democrats will be the ones who will be criticized for it.

Pressure on Democratic Senators to increase the rates of the Underwood bill is intense. Whether enough of them will resist it to give the Democrats at all times a majority of the Senate is a question which time alone will tell. With the two Louisiana Senators decided not to vote for the bill if it carries free sugar, the margin of Democratic control is so precarious it is not certain what will happen. Should two more Democratic Senators declare against the bill it would upset the Administration plans and leave them badly up in the air.

Seize on Threats.

Threats of Democratic leaders to inflict reprisals on manufacturers who reduce wages, and allege it is due to the tariff are being seized on by the Republican leaders. They will make the most of these threats. One of the most prominent of the Republican Senators said today this was a blunder on the part of the Democrats, and that it would react against them.

"The Administration is setting out to drive everybody to its way of thinking," said this Senator. "It will not do."

The suggestion emanating from the Administration, through Secretary Redfield, that additional time be allowed for the bill to take effect, especially the textile reductions, was not seriously considered by the Senate.

Capitulate West-It.

It is believed that it will be adopted. It is just what the manufacturers want. They desire to unload stocks already on hand without any competition from abroad. President Wilson has so far departed from his expressed wish to help the consumers that he is willing to let the manufacturers do this. The result, if the plan is carried out, is that consumers need expect no lower prices on cotton and woolen goods for a good many months to come.

Senator Martine of New Jersey is one of the Senators on the Democratic side who has heard the Republican side. He probably yielded to the wishes of the President and most of his Democratic colleagues and vote against the bill. Senator Penrose has given a bit of cheering opinion calculated to heighten the hopes of those who want speedy tariff action. He predicts it will be the middle of August before the bill is voted on in the Senate.

Four Horses Burned In Fire in Coal Yard

Four horses and six wagons were lost in a fire today in the wood and coal yard of W. M. Smith, at Second and I streets southeast. The fire started in a lunch room adjoining the wood yard. The residence at 212 I street also was slightly damaged. Nine warehouses in Moonshine alley, in the rear of residences fronting on Massachusetts avenue and F streets northwest, west from North Capitol street, were destroyed by fire shortly after midnight.
